Corporate BUSINESS

Conferences & Corporate Entertaining

Choosing the right venue for any business event is a critical factor in determining how successful it will be. It's more than a matter of convenient location. It's also about the quality of the facilities available and the experience and understanding the venue's management team has of organising seminars, conferences and exhibitions. At Cartmel, all these essentials come together in one superbly professional environment.

This is the ideal venue for any event partly because the location is an attraction in itself. Little more than 20 minutes' drive from the main M6 North South corridor, Cartmel is set in some of Cumbria's most spectacular countryside. Add the more immediate surroundings of one of Britain's most beautiful steeplechase courses, and then complete the picture with features including the weighing room, parade ring and winner's enclosure.
